

Anti-Bullying Week at Robin Hood! WB 11th November 2024

You can wear odd socks on Tuesday 12th November in school. This is to celebrate how we are all different. Let's be kind to each other and love how we are all different!

We are aware that bullying can happen in any setting.

Bullying is unacceptable at our school and we aim to have strategies to support children if bullying occurs. If bullying does occur, all pupils should be able to tell and know that incidents will be dealt with promptly. We are a TELL-ING school. This means that anyone who knows that bullying is happening is expected to tell the staff.

Whether it is verbal, physical, online or in-person, bullying has a significant impact on a child's life well in to adulthood. Every child will talk about bullying next week and we would encourage you to talk to your child about it too.

ODD SOCKS DAY

#ANTIBULLYINGWEEK

All Different
All equal

WHAT IS ODD SOCKS DAY?

Odd Socks Day is part of Anti-Bullying Week! To celebrate that we are all unique, we ask that children wear odd socks to school on Tuesday 12th November. Last year over 13,000 schools took part in Odd Socks Day. Andy Day (CBeebies/CBBC) and his band Andy and the Odd Socks are supporting the Anti-Bullying Alliance to help bring Odd Socks Day to life again this year. Have a listen to the brilliant song they have recorded especially for Anti-Bullying Week, Make a Noise.

WHY IS ODD SOCKS DAY IMPORTANT?

The day sends an important message to pupils that they should be allowed to be themselves free from bullying and helps us celebrate Anti-Bullying Week in a fun and positive way.

Is it Bullying?

When someone says or does something unintentionally hurtful and they do it once.

That's RUDE

When someone says or does something intentionally hurtful and they do it once.

That's MEAN

When someone says or does something intentionally hurtful and they keep doing it even when you tell them to stop or show them that you're upset.

That's BULLYING
